Doomsday Rally + March to picket

Friday 21 FEBRUARY

meet in the

Quarry Plaza at 11am

The doomsday clock is close to midnight. Janet Napolitano has spoken. If wildcat strikers do not submit grades and cease their strike activities by 11:59pm on Friday, February 21, over 200 graduate student workers risk being fired en masse by the UC.

This Friday, we need solidarity and our collective strength more than ever. Rally with us on Doomsday in the Quarry. We will march to the base of campus, where we will join other rallies at the picket.

Our rally coincides with actions planned at UC Davis, UCLA, UC Riverside, and UC Santa Barbara. Beyond the UC, many thousands of workers, students, professors, members of the national media, the City Council of Santa Cruz, and a U.S. presidential candidate have thrown their support behind our movement.

Which side will you be on when the clock strikes?
